The Diamond Robbery.

John Brown, commonly known as 'Mutton' Brown, managed to get into jail at Baltimore for shooting crap and was all ready when Detective Horne wanted him in connection with the robberies committed by Parker and Wayman. When Brown was brought robberies committed by Parker and Wayman. When Brown was brought over to Washington on Saturday afternoon he was brought face to face with Parker and told the story of the Tyler diamond robbery. Brown met Parker on the night of the robbery in a cook shop near Eighteenth and K streets. Parker told him he had a good job on hand and asked him to assist. He had seen a man and his wife go out of a seen a man and his wife go out of a house loaded with diamonds, and he house loaded with diamonds, and he thought he could get them. Parker climbed up the porch through a window and got the diamonds, remarking as he came out that they had enough to last them for a year. The specific charge against Brown is that of having stolen Colonel Daniel Lamont's overcoat from his residence, 2003 I street, in February last

1. Because they are made from the highest types of European grapes transolanted to the most fruitful valley in California.

2. Because of the many varieties-each is from the best-known grape for that particular wine-and consequently they are uniform in character from your to year; a very important fact with druggists and consumers.

3. Because they are made in the most careful manner and by the most ap-

4. Pecause they are full strength, pure juice wines, produced from the grape by natural processes only. They are entire-no water, no artificial coloring matter, no sugar, no crude alcohol.

5. Because they are never offered to the public until they are mature and fit

6. Because from the best vineyard in California, producing 500,000 gallons yearly. Only the oldest and finest wines come to this market, and every bottle sold carries on its label the name of the vineyard. 7. Because we have ample vaults in this city, twenty feet under ground where the wines are stored until bottled for use, experience having proven that the care and handling of wines is as important as the making. 8. Because we have no irresponsible agents, and hold ourselves responsible for the quality and perfect condition of every bottle sold. 9. Because we can ship our wine to any State east of the Mississippi river, in lots of four or more cases, with safety to the purchaser and for less money han a like wine can be purchased elsewhere.

10. Because we are here on a permanent basis, and will refund purchase money on any wine which proves unsatisfactory.

11. Because we carry a large stock and can duplicate orders to any extent. 12. Because Mr. H. W. Crabb, the owner of the To-Kalon vineyard, after an exhaustive study of European vineyards and all the intricate processes of wine making, has given twenty years of his life to the great industry of American wine production, and now deservedly stands at the head with a reputation too valuable to iconardize.

13. Because the average American wines are from inferior grapes-often arelessly made, often doctored to create an artificial flavor, and put on the market too young, after an enforced clarification.

14. Because nine-tenths of the so-called imported wines are spurious, or extended with water and poor alcohol, flavored and colored to "suit the market."
